About Seminar

India's robust economic growth and an emerging power status make it a key country of interest for policymakers, researchers and scholars within South Asia and around the world. But while many of India's threats and conflicts are strategized and discussed extensively within the confines of security and strategic studies, and conventional international relations perspectives, many less visible challenges are set to impact significantly on India's potential for economic growth as well as the human security. The objectives of the proposed conference are to initiate a vibrant discussion on various aspects of India's human security. The key question that the proposed seminar would like to probe is how to make sense and address various human security challenges in India.
